Remarks:

Our review of the attached material included a meeting with [REDACTED]. Our only problem with the transmittal, as well as the draft bill, is the omission of the new BEC benefit. As you know, that portion of the "Second Spouse" Civil Service Retirement amendment permits an individual who returns to duty after a period of separation to get credit for the period of separation during which he was in receipt of compensation under the Federal Employees' Compensation Act. Although the cases where this would actually realize a benefit for
